Location & surrounding area:

Solta is among Croatia- experts an insider tip.

The stony, rocky coasts, the numerous beaches and sleepy fishing villages confirm this statement very well. Solta can be reached by boat within 40 min. The capital Rogac impresses with its charming old town and the century-old garden. The hospitality of the islanders is great. People are very open and friendly.

The almost rustic charm and the original flair of the island, make it a great place to rest and to relax.

There are also plenty of opportunities to spend the free time more actively. Diving and sailing are just two examples. The underwater world of the Adriatic Sea is very impressive.
